

Access to the Veneto Workers Histories (VWH) dataset

In order to use the VWH dataset (years 1975-2001), we kindly ask our to commit to the following users' rules:

- Do not release the data to other people or institutions;
- Please quote the data source in any research outcome by specifying "Dataset developed by the Economics Department in Università Ca' Foscari Venezia under the supervision of Giuseppe Tattara";
- Abide by the standard norms on use and protection of statistical data as further specified in d.lgs. 196/2003 and in the related "Codice di deontologia e di buona condotta per i trattamenti di dati personali a scopi statistici e di ricerca scientifica effettuati nell'ambito del Sistema statistico nazionale". You will be considered responsible for any misuse of the data by other colleagues involved in common projects based on the above dataset;
- Do not use the data for commercial purposes.

We would be most grateful if you could send to the Fondazione Rodolfo Debenedetti any research paper or communication of events in which the dataset is used, by writing to info@frdb.org.

The above commitments are important in evaluating the impact of Fondazione Rodolfo Debenedetti's data sources and are crucial to guarantee that the Fondazione Rodolfo Debenedetti will be able to collect and distribute data in the future. For this reason, please adhere strictly to these rules.

We must warn you that any behaviour against the above rules will determine immediate withdrawal of your right to use the data. The Fondazione Rodolfo Debenedetti will also undertake legal action, if necessary.
