

THE WILLIAM DAVIDSON INSTITUTE

AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN BUSINESS SCHOOL

The Davidson Institute is working in partnership with the Rodolfo DeBenedetti Foundation in Europe to provide balanced, pragmatic research and policy analysis on the impacts of immigration with a focus on the U.S. and European Union expansion. This ongoing initiative is generating surprising and valuable insights that demonstrate the urgent need for government to decisively implement policy reforms.

Please join Madeleine K. Albright Distinguished Scholar of the Davidson Institute at a roundtable discussion on:

“Immigration Policy and the Welfare System”

Featured Presenters: Professor Tito Boeri (director of the Rodolfo DeBenedetti Foundation and research fellow of the Davidson Institute) and Professor Jan Svejnar (Executive Director of the Davidson Institute)
